THE NEW EMPLOYER-EMPLOYEE COMPACT

1. Employees first
   Consumers, investors and employees all agree that employees are now your most important—and influential—stakeholder. Meeting their expectations brings advocacy and loyalty. Employers who don’t, risk disruptive activism and higher turnover.

2. Share the power
   Employees know they now hold more power and want more participation. Practice bottom-up strategy planning to create more involvement.

3. Take a stand
   Greater social impact is a strong expectation for the majority of job seekers. Center your business strategy and employer brand around your commitments on critical social issues such as healthcare, the environment and DEI.

4. Upskill your workforce
   A broader societal remit doesn’t relieve employers from the urgent need to train workers for the jobs of the future. Enabling workers to thrive in the age of automation and AI is a competitive advantage and builds employee trust.
